A place where every colour belongs

In Luxembourg,
we entered a space
where every story has its place.
A queer organization,
warm and bright,
filled with unique voices and powerful colours.

Love is love,
in every form
like a fire that never stops burning.

Different hearts and various ways can bring their colors to our days.
We listened to our stories and experiences,
created by the harsh reality.

Imagine a world without judgement, where kindness opens every door, where people feel at home inside the selves they have been searching for.

Be your beautiful self,
with pride,
let your colors walk beside you and let your voice become a part of something bigger
to create change.

From Luxembourg,
the message grows.
Every heart deserves a place to shine.
Through curious minds and open hearts, our different worlds can intertwine.

We came to experience how love can build community.
And when we left,
one thought remained.

A brighter world begins with change!
